

The following scale of fees for clergy undertaking occasional duty is that recommended by the Diocese from 1 May 2009. It should only be departed from with the express authority of the relevant Archdeacon.

1. Full Sunday Duty (ie 3 or more services) - £66.00, plus travelling expenses and hospitality.
2. For a Single Service - £26.50, plus travelling expenses and hospitality.

NB: Clergy who are beneficed or licensed in the Diocese in any capacity, and who receive a stipend or salary, are not paid a fee when they take occasional duty but churchwardens are, therefore, especially reminded to offer to reimburse their travelling expenses.

Mileage reimbursement should be at the rate of 40p per mile.
